General Information

Short summary

A Japanese distributor of sake and fruit liqueurs with connections to over 100 traditional breweries and distilleries across Japan, is looking for EU partners under a commercial agreement to enter the EU market and spread the reach of exclusive Japanese spirits in Europe. The company can also provide marketing, brand building, and training supports to educate local customers to Japanese sake culture.

Full description

Japanese Alcohol Beverage Sourcing and Exclusive Distribution

With strong connections to over 100 breweries and distilleries across Japan, the company offers a diverse range of alcoholic beverages for exclusive distribution. They can facilitate connections between their partners and their preferred breweries or distilleries. Leveraging their experience in international markets, the company also provides support in marketing, brand building, education and training, tasting samples, and English-translated product specifications.

Strong and Reliable Connections with Makers

The company network of over 100 Japanese alcohol producers spans Japan, each deeply rooted in their local areas and often run by generations of craftspeople who use local water and ingredients. Each producer has inherited unique production techniques, creating flavors that reflect the local environment, culture, climate, soil, and grain varieties. The water quality and mineral balance in each region, along with its unique climate and landscape, shape an alcohol that embodies regional distinctiveness and preserves local customs and flavors. The company offerings include Sake, Shochu, Awamori, Spirits, and Fruit Liquors that showcase the individuality and heritage of each region in Japan.

Target Oversea partnerships

The company has established a presence in Taiwan, Mainland China, Hong Kong, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia, the United Kingdom, the United States, and Canada. They are now looking for enthusiastic and potential partners in the EU to join them in expanding their reach under a commercial agreement.

Advanced OEM Original Equipment Manufacturing services

The company has a dedicated department specialized in OEM services for product development and packaging design, allowing EU partners to personalize any product before exporting it from Japan to better fit local requirements in terms of labeling or design.

Advantages and innovations

Experienced and knowledgeable sake professionals
