ABOUT ME

I graduated with highest honors from the University of Pisa in International Relations, developing a deep knowledge and interest in global affairs, international dynamics, and cross-cultural relationships. Immersing myself in Japan for six months—living, studying, and working—expanded my horizons, enriching my adaptability and communication skills within diverse cultural setting.

My extensive engagement as both an athlete in diverse sports disciplines and a coach taught me the essence of effective team building and team management. These experiences have honed my collaborative problem-solving abilities, fostering cooperation and trust among team members. Consequently, I have cultivated indispensable skills in team dynamics and proficient management
