

Recommendations to the Leaders of the EU and Japan

Working Party 4 Environment & Sustainable Development

Working Party Leaders:

Mr. Norihiko Ishiguro
Senior Executive Vice President
NEC Corporation

Dr. Mark PLEŠKO
President
Cosylab d.d.

Environment

- Find technologically and economically viable options and take a flexible approach with a reasonable and realistic transition period.

<Newly added items>

- Data Visualization for CO2 emissions of the entire supply chain.
 - promote measures to create and utilize a platform that can be used to share CO2 emission data in the entire supply chain.

Environment

- Promotion of resource efficiency and the circular economy.
 - develop a policy promoting the optimization of both international and regional circulation, from the perspective of maintaining and securing economic security.

- Natural capital and biodiversity.
 - continuously promote the study and development of the natural capital value of forests.
 - contributing to the sustainability of agriculture by using the latest AI and digital technologies.

Secure & safe cities and their management

- take the lead in promoting market introduction of energy conservation and energy efficiency technologies and their supporting infrastructures.
 - This includes the shifting of social systems and lifestyles by adopting the latest technologies from ICT breakthrough innovations and the promotion of networking through the utilization of digital technologies.
- Promote to accelerate the introduction and utilization of City Operating System (OS).
 - Specifically, the development of smart cities is the use of FIWARE